 Indice dei Compositori (Note esplicative pagina 26)
 Índice de compositores (notas explicativas página 32)

As an additional cross-reference in this Index of composers, the numbers of many concertos, symphonies, etc., have been indicated in parentheses after their respective titles, using the following specific abbreviations:

conc piano. = concerto for piano (and orch); conc violin. = concerto for violin (and orch); son piano. = sonata for piano; son violin. = sonata for violin (solo or with piano); symph. = symphony; symph poem. = symphonic poem.

Example: (Under Beethoven) Appassionata (son piano.23) means Sonata for piano number 23.

For composers with a similar last name, the code letters used as their initials in the List of titles are indicated in bold at the beginning of their first names in this Index of composers.

Examples: Samuel (Hans) Adler 1928 (Ger → American)... appears as S Adler in the List of titles.
